TO A GIRL KNITTING.

BY MISS LOUISE R. VICKROY.

Suggested by an Oil Painting by J. Rucc Williams, which hung in my chamber at the house of a friend.

Always knitting, lady bright,
From the morning till the night,
Taking stitches one by one,
Will that stocking ne'er be done?
Weary weeks I've seen you sitting,
Still with tireless patience knitting,
Beautiful and patient one,
And it never will be done.
Yet you do not put it by,
Model sweet of industry.
Ope your lips, then tell to me,
What your gentle thoughts may be.
Are your musings always fair?
Build you castles in the air,
Brightened with such images,
As my soul in slumber sees?
Not a word—Oh! can it be
That such visions haunt not thee?
Spirit sweet in maiden guise,
Without hopes or memories,
Tell me then from whence you came,
Whisper low your lovely name.
Mary is't that floats along,
On a tide of deathless song?
Or sweet Imogen or Flora,
Rosamond or Theodora?

Locks of sunny, soft gold brown,
Snow eyelids drooping down,
Of the orbs to make eclipse.
Tender cheeks and rose bud lips,
Where the rongish kisses hide,
Ivory neck and brow of pride,
Blend their charms to make of thee,
Fit shrine for Idolatry.

O exquisitely fair thou art,
And though silent to my heart,
Thou a lesson sweet hast brought;
And though thee my soul has caught,
Higher hopes and holiest gleams
Of the heaven form fire that streams
From spirit beauty such as thine,
To make employment half divine,
And brighter o'er life's current dull,
Bless, O bless the beautiful.

Short Patent Sermon.

Text—Pay the Printer.

MY DEAR FRIENDS:—The debt that sits heaviest upon the conscience of a mortal, provided he is one, is the debt due the printer. It presses harder on one's bosom than the night mare galls the soul, frets and chafes every enobling sentiment, squeezes all the juice of fraternal sympathy from the heart, and leaves it drier than the surface of a roasted potato.

A man who wrongs the printer out of a single red cent can never expect to enjoy the comforts of this world, and may well have doubts of finding happiness in any other.

Oh, you ungrateful sinners! If you have hearts moistened with the dew of mercy, instead of gizzards filled with gravel, take heed what I say unto you. If there be one of you in this congregation who has not settled his account with the printer, go and adjust it immediately, and be able to hold up your head in society like a giraffe; be respected by the wise and the good; free from the torture of a guilty conscience, the mortification of repeated duns, and escape from falling into the clutches of lawyers, which is one and the same thing. If you are honest and honorable men, you will go forth and pay the printer.

You will not wait for to-morrow—it is but a visionary receptacle for unredeemed promises—an addled egg in the great nest of the futnre, and the debtor's hope and the creditor's curse. If you are dishonest low minded sons of Satan, I do not suppose you will pay the printer, as you have no reputation to loose, no character to sustain, no morals to cultivate. But let me tell you, my friends, that if you do it, your path to the tomb will be strewed with thorns; you will have to gather your food from brambles, your children will die of dysentery, yourselves will never enjoy the blessings of health.

I once called upon a sick person whom the doctor had given up as a gone case. I asked him if he had made his peace with his Maker. He said he thought he had squared up. I then inquired if he had forgiven his enemies? He replied yes. I then asked him if he had paid the printer. He hesitated a moment, and then said he thought he owed him about two dollars and fifty cents, which he desired would be paid before he gave good-bye to the world. His desire was immediately gratified, and from that moment he became convalescent. He is now living, in the enjoyment of good health and prosperity, at peace with his conscience, his God, and the world.

Let him be an example for you, my friends. Patronize the printer, take his paper and pay for it in advance, and your days will be long upon the earth; and overflowing with the honey of happiness.

☞ Other passions have objects to flatter them and seemingly to content and satisfy them for awhile; there is power in ambition, and pleasure in luxury, and self in covetousness; but envy can give nothing but vexation.

Love in a Tunnel.

Many amusing anecdotes of ventriloquists have been published, and many more told, that have not been published. But we think the are few ventriloquil incidents that will compare with one we witnessed recently on the cars of the Virginia Central Railroad. We have read anecdotes of Nichols, Kenworthy, Love, Sutton, Harrington and Blitz, but think the following actual occurrence will bear favorable mention, side by side with either.

The cars left Charlottevile, Va., for Staunton, at 12 m., and entered the tunnel, which is very long and very dark, about half past 1 p. m. We had hardly been shut out from daylight, when a noise was heard in the rear end of the last car. The conductor and several passengers, who were standing on the platform, entered the car with aview to discover the cause of the disturbance. But owing to the extreme darkness, nothing could be seen. While patiently waiting to hear the slightest movement, which might explain the excitement, a boisterous noise, resembling the sound produced by fervent kissing, and at the same moment a female voice was heard exclaiming:

"Get out you brute! Let me alone! I'll call the conductor! Keep your hands off sir! This is shameful!"

"Where is he!" cried the conductor in an angry tone, approaching the direction whence the sounds proceeded.

"Here!" says the lady, "this end of the car, arrest him! he insulted me shamefully—here he is again! Will you let me alone? I think it a burning shame that a respectable lady should be treated in this manner?"

"Get in the ladies' car, then!" shouted a gruff voice. "You have no business here!"

"She has a right here!" replied the conductor, seizing the individual he supposed guilty of a misdemeanor.

"You needn't grabb me," said a husky voiced old man; "I didn't touch her; I haven't seen a woman in the car!"

The conductor seemed confused, and retraced his steps to the forward end of the car. Again the voice was heard, apparently in the rear.

"Here he is again, conductor! Go away! quit! let me alone! this is shameful! Keep your hands to yourself, sir! I'll leave the car! You follow if you dare?"

This language was followed by an explosion resembling the concussion of two lips. All was confusion. The sympathizing passengers were all standing up, highly excited; but owing to the darkness and the uncertainty that existed from whence the sounds proceeded, nothing was done. A noise like the rustling of silk was heard, the rear door of the car opened and then closed with a banging sound, making the extraordinary stillness which followed fearful to contemplate, which fearfulness increased to horror, when the conductor announced that the lady must have stepped off the platform, as there was no car attached.

The cars were stopped by the signal rope, and a lantern procured, when the passengers headed by the conductor, groped slowly and silently back through the tunnel, expecting momentarily to discover the mutilated remains of the unfortunate female. But after searching back to the mouth of the tunnel, nothing was found, and they sadly retraced their steps.

Upon arriving at the train, a passenger suggested that the cause of the excitement be arrested, and in the cars went the party searching every seat until they came to a person, leaning forward on the back of a seat in front of him, apparently asleep.—The conductor roughly shook the sleeper, when he raised his head, when lo! and behold, it was Wyman, the ventriloquist.

The party very reluctantly swallowed the unmitigated "sell." The cars started and sped on to their place of destination, having been detained one hour over time.

☞ I will not quarrel with you about my opinion, only see that your heart be right toward God, that you know and love the Lord Jesus Christ, that you love your neighbor, and walk as your master walked, and I desire no more. I am sick of opinions; I am weary to hear them; my soul loathes this frothy food. Give me solid and substantial religion; give me a humble gentle lover of God and man; a man full of mercy and good faith; without partiality, and without hypocracy; a man laying himself out in the work of faith, the patience of hope, the labor of love.—Let my soul be with these Christians; wheresoever they are, and whatsoever opinion they are of.—John Wesley.

AN IRISH LOVE LETTER.—Och Paddy! swate Paddy! if I was yer daddy, I'd kill you with kisses entirely; if I was your brother, and likewise your mother, I'd see that you went to bed airly. To taste of your breath I would starve me to death, and lay of my hoops altogether; to just have a taste of your arm on me waist, and larf at the manest of weather. Dear Paddy be mine, me own sweet valentine—ye'll find me both gentle and civil; our life we will spind in an illigent ind, and care may go dance the divil.

Col. Smith in the Jones Family.

"Well, after dark I put up with a first rate, good natured fellow that I met at the billiard table. I went in and was introducedto his wife, a fine, fat woman, looking as though she lived on laffin', her face was so full of fun. After a while, after we'd talked about my girl, and about the garden, and about the weather, in come three or four children, laffin' and skipping as merry as crickets. There was no candle lit, but I could see that they were fine looking fellows, and I started for my saddle-bags in which I had put a lot of sugar candy as I went along.

"Come here," said I, "you little rogue; come here and tell me what your name is.',

The oldest came to me and says; "My name is Peter Jones."

"And what's your name, sir?"

"Bob Jones."

The next said his name was Bill Jones, and the fourth said his name was Tommy Jones. I gave 'em sugar candy, and old Mrs. Jones was so tickled that she laughed all the time. Mr. Jones looked on, but didn't say much.

"Why," says I, "Mrs. Jones, I would not take a good deal for them four boys, if I had 'em, they are so beautiful and sprightly."

"No," says she, laffin', "I set a good deal on 'em, but we spoil 'em too much."

"No, no," says I, "they're well behaved chiidren, and by gracious," says I, pretending to be startled by a striking resemblance between the boys and father, and I looked at Mr. Jones, "I never did see anything equal to it," says I, "your own eyes, mouth, forehead, and perfect pictur' of hair, sir," tapping the eldest on the pate.

I thought that Mrs. Jones would have died laffin' at that; her arms fell down by her side, and she shook the whole house.

"Do you think so, Mr. Smith?" said she, looking towards Mr. Jones, and I tho't she'd go off in a fit.

"Yes," says I, "I do really."

"Haw, haw, haw," says Mr. Jones, kind o' laffin', "you are too hard on me, now, with your jokes."

"I ain't a joken' at all," says I; "they are handsome children, and do look wonderfully like you."

Just then a gal brought a light in, and I'll be darned if the little brats didn't turn out to be niggers, every one of 'em, and their heads curly all over. Mr. and Mrs. Jones never had any children, and they petted them niggers as playthings. I never felt so streaked as I did when I found out how things stood.

TO DELAY BLOSSOMS.—Any fruit trees may be made to bloom sufficiently late in the season to prevent the fruit from being injured by the frost, and consequently present a fine, heavy crop, by the following judicious treatment:—In the middle of winter, when the ground is most severely frozen, put a large pile of wheat straw or oak leaves around the roots, letting it extend some distance in every direction, so as to cover the extended roots that approach the surface of the earth. Cover this pile with planks or boards, so that no rain can fall upon the pile. Let this cover remain until all danger from frost has passed. Then remove the cover and straw and look for a splendid crop to follow soon. The rationale of this is: the frozen earth will not thaw until late in the spring, if the pile remain; and while the earth is frozen the trees cannot bloom; but when the danger is past, remove the covering, and the tree will bloom speedily. Try it, farmer-friends.—New Yorker.

MEN'S EYES WILL WANDER.—Show but a strip of white stocking above your boot, or a bit of an embroidered skirt, or a Balmoral, and you may lead a New Yorker by the nose all over Manhattan, though all Wall street stand waiting for him.—I have positively seen gentlemen stand at the ferry gate when their arms were half broken with bundles, eargerly bobbing their heads this way and that to catch a sight of the gaiter boots as they alighted from the various omnibuses. And not all young men either, but gray-headed old codgers, who had grandpa written all over them. "Why should a woman care about it if her ankels be pretty?" "Care?" It may be just possible that if an exhibition is fore-ordained and inevitable, she may prefer to choose her audience.

WORKING UP SAWDUST.—The ingenuity of Parisian cabinet makers in the Faubourg St. Antoine, has found a use for common sawdust which raises the value of that commodity far above the worth of solid timber. By a new process, combining the hydraulic press and the application of intense heat, these wooden particles are made to re-form themselves into a solid mass, capable of being moulded into any shape, and presenting a brilliant surface, a durability and beauty of appearance not found in ebony, rosewood, or mahogany.

☞ It is said that a roasted onion bound upon the wrist, on the pulse, will stop the most inveriate toothache in a few minutes. Simple, but worth trying.

Man's Superiority.

There is an intolerant spirit in the breast of man, which ought to be rebuked. He is continually attacking, and,—I almost would say—attempting to degrade her whom he pretends to elevate. She is made the subject of ridicule and jest in every place. Pick up the public Journals, and their columns are filled with burlesque accounts of some accidents befalling some unfortunate lady in hoops. Editors and writers have been doating over this subject for the last year or two. Suppose ladies do wear hoops if it be their good pleasure, in what way does it concern man? It must truly be a morbid taste that can enjoy such silly nonsense, and yet we are told that man is strong-minded. If it is not hoops it is gossip, and if not gossip it is woman's rights or something else—and continually he amuses himself, quite forgetting his own faults.

"Man, proud man, dressed in a little brief authority,
Plays such fantastic tricks before High Heaven,
as make the angels weep."

Did not the dignity of our sex demand a rebuke, I should lay down my pen and keep silent; but when the manifest and gross injustice of the haughty Lord of Creation becomes so apparent, I think I should be untrue to my sex did I not resent his insolence.

Has man any superiority to boast of? If so, what is it? Is it when he struts along the street with a horse blanket thrown over his shoulders, thinking that he looks very effeminate? Or is it when he is indulging in the use of tobacco, making himself an object of disgust to all decent persons? He is unfit for the parlor, and even profanes the house of God with this filthy habit. Perhaps it is when drinking spiritous liquors, and reeling to and fro, or lying in the gutter in a state of beastly intoxication. Perhaps it is in the tyranny which he displays towards our sex, forcing us to labor for half the renumeration that he would give to his own. If these are not his excellencies, then where is his boasted supremacy?—Echo answers where? Let him who is without sin cast the first stone. I am not in favor of woman's rights as advocated by fanatics, but as good sense and modesty demand. A LADY OF DIGNITY.

A NEW INVENTION.—Mr. Norman Wiard, of Wisconsin, proposes to construct a watertight iron boat for the conveyance of passengers and freight on the ice, with greater safety, economy and speed than can be done by any other known means of transit.

These boats will entirely supersede the necessity of railroads in winter, where built parallel to rivers in cold climates.—The track costs nothing, and is kept in repair without expense; a depth of snow which would stop a train of cars would make no visible impression on the speed or progress of this ice-boat.

If the ice should fail, the boat would rest upon the water, and by the power of the engines could be launched upon the ice with greater ease than a locomotive could be replaced upon the track when off. The boat which I first propose to build, will be twelve feet in width by seventy feet in length, and when resting upon the water would displace about one foot in depth. It will be propelled by a pair of locomotive engines, acting on a single driving-wheel, to which adhesion is given by various devices.

He now wishes to obtain sufficient capital to enable him to construct one of these boats, for immediate use on the Upper Mississippi.

A FATALIST.—A western paper publishes the following: "I knew an old man who believed that 'what was to be would be.' He lived in a region infested by very savage Indians. He always took his gun with him, but this time he found that some of his family had taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friends tantalized him, by saying that there was no danger of the Indians; that he would not die till his time came anyhow. 'Yes,' says the old fellow, 'but suppose I was to meet an Indian, and his time was come, it wouldn't do not to have my gun.'"

☞ An ingenious downeaster has constructed a miniature factory village, with engines, wheels, windmills, carriages, waterfalls, persons walking, playing, swinging, &c., and the whole so delicately arranged, and so nicely adjusted, as to be put in complete operation by a single mouse, which travels in a small circular cage, as squirrels are often seen doing.

☞ Fanny Fern says, "if one-half of the girls knew the previous life of the men they marry, the list of old maids would be wonderfully increased," and the Boston Post adds that if the men could only look into the future life of the women they marry the number of old maids would be greatly advanced.

"Sally," said a witty young man, to a girl with red hair, "keep away from me, or you will set me afire." "No danger of that," was the answer, "you are too green to burn."

Sam Lover and the Ladies.

At the celebration of the Burns' Centennary in Glasgow, Mr. Samuel Lover, in proposing the toast of "The Lassies," said: Ladies and gentlemen, it seems a sort of practical pun that the lassies should be proposed by a Lover, (laughter.) But I hope the ladies that are here, will believe that an Irish lover is never deficient in paying his homage to what has been called the most beautiful half of the human race, (cheers.) Ladies, in your smile exists the poet's reward. There never was a poet yet that didn't worship women—(hear, hear,)—and pre-eminently the bard whose name we have met this day to honor worshipped "the lasses, O!" (Loud applause.) But the greatest poet in the world, whatever might be his power—and the power of making love was very great in Robert Burns—cannot make love by himself. He must have a lady to help him—(laughter)—and I must say that, from all my experience, very good helps they are. (Renewed laughter.) Shakspeare has comprised under one head, the lunatic, the lover, and the poet; and when I first became a lover, I felt convinced that Shakspeare was right in saying that a lover was a lunatic, (laughter.) And Mr. Chairman, ladies, and gentlemen—for I wish to call as many witness as I can to this fact—I found madness so delightful that I think I never have been right in my senses since (great laughter;) but if ever I have had a lucid interval, it has only been to sigh for bedlam again, and call upon Cupid for my keeper.

☞ Some one takes off the peculiar adjective system now in use, and deservedly too: "At the breakfast table," says he, "coffee, excruciatingly hot, is poured out of a lovely pot, and accompanied by bread and butter of infinite excellence. In our walks—when the vile weather does not prevent our walking—we have the sweetest vessels that ever sailed the waters, the most exquisite cows that ever ate grass; and returning agonized with cold, we not seldom find a heavenly fire, by which we sit down enraptured, comfortably bewailing the cruel shortness of the days, and the eternal length of the nights; particularly when we have an immeasurable quantity of nuts to crack, of which the ladies declare themselves to be devotedly fond. The indulgence in such expletives is a sure sign of an imperfect education.

DEATH.—We thought nothing new could be said about death, but Taylor, of the Chicago Journal, has the following ideas:—

"There is a dignity about that going away alone, we call dying; that wrapping the mantle of mortality about us; that putting aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this cradle of a world; that venturing away from home the first time in our lives, for we are not dead; there is nothing dead to speak of, and seeing foreign countries not laid down on any maps we know about. There must be lovely lands starward, for none ever return that go hither, and we very much doubt if any would if they could."

☞ A servant girl, in the town of A——in England, whose beauty formed matter of general admiration and discussion, in passing a group of officers in the street, heard one of them exclaim to his fellows, "By Heaven she's painted!"—Turning round, she very quietly replied, "Yes, sir; and by Heaven only!" The officer acknowledged the force of the rebuke, and apologized.

☞ Man is like a snow-ball. Leave him lying in idleness against the sunny fence of prosperity, and all the good that's in him melts like butter; but kick him around, and he gathers strength with every revolution until he grows into an avalanche. To succeed you must keep moving.

THE LOVE OF CHANGE.—A sovereign once broken into, soon goes, and it is the same with a resolution. A resolution, unbroken, is as hard as gold; once change it, and it is thrown, as it were, into so many coppers, and rapidly melts away.

☞ Hopes and cares, anxieties, and fears, divide our life. Would you be free from these anxieties? think every day will be your your last, and then succeeding hours will be the more welcome, because unexpected.

☞ Never seek to be entrusted with your friend's secrets, for, no matter how faithful you may keep it, you will be liable in a thousand contingencies to the suspicion of having betrayed it.

☞ One man asked another why his beard was brown and his hair white?—"Because," he said, "one is twenty years younger than the other."

JOY.—'Tis the well-spring of pleasure, a messenger of peace, a precious thing, hallowed dream.

DEATH.—A sleep, a rest from earth's toils and cares, a separation of the soul from the frail tenement of clay.

Terrible Railroad Accident.

It was with feelings of the deepest regret that we read the following account of a melancholly accident, near Halifax, on the Northern Central R. R. which we found in the Harrisburg Telegraph of Monday evening last. With Dr. Wright, the victim in the disaster, we were at one time intimately acquainted, he having been our (the senior's) preceptor for a considerable length of time, in our school-boy-days, and we always entertained for him the highest respect. The Dr. was a native of Juniata county. He studied medicine with Dr. Philo Hamlin in Mifflintown, and after attending a regular course of lectures, located at Halifax, in Dauphin county, where he has since resided. He was entirely a self-made man, having risen from obscurity, and worked his way, by indomnitable energy and perseverance, to the position he occupied at his death.—His popularity in the county of his adoption may be inferred from the fact that he was elected to the Legislature in a few years after his settlement therin.

The following is the Telegraph's account of the accident;

We have just received the particulars of a fatal accident which occurred on the Northern Central Railroad, near Halifax, yesterday, resulting in the death of Dr. John Wright, formerly a member of the Legislature from this county, and for some time past occupying the position of Brigade Inspector. It appears that the Doctor and two of his children—a boy and girl—took a walk on the railroad in the afternoon.—While resting in the bridge above Halifax, a coal train came along, and before they could get out of the way ran into them. The Doctor was instantly killed! The little boy, named Clarence, managed to reach the side of the bridge, and clinging to the arch, escaped unhurt. The little girl, Annie, was struck by the train, had her arm cut off close to the shoulder, and was otherwise injured. She was tolerably comfortable at last accounts, but fears were entertained of her recovery.

Since writing the above, we learn by letter from Halifax that the little girl is still living, and will probably recover. The writer states that there is a very short curve within a short distance of the bridge, and there being an aqueduct and water-fall in close proximity, the noise would render it almost impossible for persons on the bridge to hear the approach of a train in time to get out of the way. The engineer of the train states that he gave the usual signal, and a Mr. Loomis declares just as positively that the signal was not given. There are various rumors circulating with regard to this affair which we deem it improper to notice at this time, as they come to us in a very questionable shape.

P. S. The little daughter of Dr. Wright died on Monday night, after suffering intensely. The remains of parent and child were taken to Mifflintown, Juniata county, on Tuesday, for interment.

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.—Quite a number of opposition papers are suggesting the names of good men in connection with the nomination for the Gubernatorial Chair, one year hence. Among those mentioned are Hon. E. B. Gazzam, now State Senator from Allegheny, Gen. J. K. Moorhead, of the same county, Hon. Jno. Covode of Westmoreland, Col. A. K. McClure, of Franklin, Hon. Samuel A. Purviance, of Butler, and Hon. John. C. Kunkel, of Harrisburg. No doubt the above named persons are all well qualified to discharge the duties appertaining to the office named, and would be happy to do so. It is rather premature, we think, to be canvassing this subject at this time; but since the ball has been opened and candidates suggested, we would present the name of the Tariff war horse of the Mountain coal and iron district, Hon. SAMUEL CALVIN, as a man made of the right kind of material to be the successor of Gov. Packer. We would like to see the Governor selected from the Juniata Valley, and know of no one who could fill the office more creditably than the gentleman named. We hope a stand may be made by the centre of the State in his favor.

IMPROVED.—The Central Press, printed at Bellefonte, comes to us this week considerably enlarged and improved. It is now a seven column paper, printed on new type, and conducted with ability and spirit. We hope the proprietors may be abundantly rewarded for their outlay.

IVANHOE.—We have received from the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, a couple of the above work, one of the Walter Scott's best efforts. The authorship of the author can not be too extensively diffused. No one can read them without being instructed and amused. As eloquent American critic has said, that "if ever writer deserved universal citizenship, it was Sir Walter Scott." All the works of Scott are published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, at the low price of 25 cts. per number. They comprise 26 volumes.—Every library should contain them.

COURT HOUSE BURNED.—On Thursday last the Court House at Clarion, in this State, was entirely destroyed by fire. All the records, however, were saved.—The cause of the fire is attributed to defective flues, which a few dollars might have repaired and thus saved one of the finest buildings of its kind in the country. The Court House was built in 1842, at a cost of about $11,000. The insurance on the building in about $7,000, $5,000 being in the Lycoming Company, and $2,000, which was taken on the 1st of March, in the New York Insurance Company.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The Atlantic Monthly for March has come to hand.—Its arrival was anxiously awaited, and its contents eagerly scaned. There was no disappointment. Let us anticipate as largely as we may, the Atlantic always exceeds them. This periodical is free from flashy pictures and stories for ardent lovers, and contains much valuable information interspersed with wit and humor considerably above the common order. Price $3 per annum. We will furnish it for $2,00.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, March 15, 1859.

A bill came up in the Senate on Saturday last, which is now pending, which is of considerable importance to the people at large, as it contemplates making effective the law which exempts from levy and sale $300 worth of property. This law has been rendered ineffective, or almost so, by giving waived notes, which notes have been pronounced binding by the Supreme Court in all cases where a consideration is given at the time. Thus, a man engaged in an infatuating gambling transaction, may borrow $50 from a man and give a waived note for $200 therefor. If the note is not met, an execution may lie against anything in the house from the bed down to the dinner pot. This supplement vests that amount of property in the decedents wife and children, and consequently renders null and void the claimer. I think the law will pass.

The project for erecting a new County out of parts of Clearfield, Indiana, Cambria, and Jefferson, was killed off last Wednesday in the House, but on Saturday the vote was re-considered, which is an indication that the bill may still pass the House at some future day, but I doubt whether it can pass the Senate in any event.

A supplement to the act incorporating the Altoona Gas Company is now in the hands of the committee on corporations. It makes the Co., a Gas and Water Company, adds some eight or ten of the most prominent citizens to the commissioners, increases the capital, and enables the company to borrow money. There is no question about the passage of the supplement at an early day, and the company should, in the meantime go on with their arrangements.

The House held a session last night, apparently for the express purpose of hearing Mr. Irish hold forth on the merits of his "Personal Liberty" bill.

There is now pending on the Senate file a very important supplement to the Common School Law. I deem it of sufficient importance to give it to you entire:—

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when the directors or controllers and teachers of the several school districts in this Commonwealth shall have made the selection of books provided for in the twenty-fifth section of an act for the regulation and continuance of a system of education by common school, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, the books so selected shall be used for a period of not less than three years, and no change or alteration shall be made within that period.

SEC. 2. That it shall not be lawful, after the passage of this act, for the directors or controllers of common schools of any district in this Commonwealth, to employ any female as teacher in the common schools who has not attained the age of eighteen years, and no male applicant under the age of twenty years.

SEC. 3. That before any director of common schools hereafter elected shall discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by existing laws, he shall be qualified by oath or affirmation, to be administered by an acting justice of the peace or alderman, to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his said office.

SEC. 4. That it shall not be lawful for the school directors or controllers of the common schools of any school district in this State, in determining the amount of tax to be levied in their district for school and building purposes, to exceed eight mills on the dollar on any and all property subject to taxation by existing laws for school purposes.

SEC. 5. That all independent school districts heretofore formed, either by enactment of the Legislature or by any court of common pleas of this Commonwealth, be and the same are hereby abolished; and that it shall not be lawful for the said courts, after the passage of this act, to establish or continue any independent district for school purposes

SEC. 6. That the qualified electors of the several cities, boroughs and counties of this Commonwealth shall, at the next general election, determine by ballot whether the office of county superintendent of common schools shall be abolished or not; and that the ballots so voted shall be for the county superintendent and against the county superintendent; and the result of said election shall be certified by the proper officers in the mode prescribed by existing laws in relation to the returns for State officers; and if a majority of the votes polled should be against the abolition of said office, then the same shall remain as provided for by existing laws; but if a majority of the votes so polled should be in favor of the abolition of the office, then the said office is to be so declared abolished by the State superintendent of common schools, to take effect on the first Monday in January next succeeding said election; notice of the same to be sent by State superintendent to the several superintendents in the Commonwealth.

SEC. 7. That in case the people should decide in favor of the abolition of the office of county superintendent, as hereinbefore provided for, then it shall be the duty of the board of directors or controllers of common schools of the several districts of this Commonwealth to annually appoint three competent persons, who shall constitute a board of examiners, for the examination of applicants for employment as teachers, in conjunction with the aforesaid directors or controllers; and no other person, except such as shall be recommended by said examiners, shall be employed as teachers.

Two bills have been killed in the Senate, which have had the honor of being lions for a time, and have had a considerable amount of eloquence wasted upon them. I have reference to the General Banking Law, and the law prohibiting banks from issuing notes of a less denomination than $20. The former I considered good—the latter impracticable. A new free banking bill has been drawn up, but it is now so late in the session that it is not likely to be pushed.

A number of bills have been indefinitely postponed in the House, viz.: an act to make dogs personal property—an act to commute the death penalty, in certain certain cases, and an act to prevent intermarriage between blacks and whites.

The committee on divorces met on Thursday night of last week, and, after a very protracted session, agreed to report the bill favorably in the Fry case. This is a point gained by the applicant, but what will be the ultimate result is still enveloped in a fog.

The great fight between the Green and Coates and the Germantown Passenger Railway Companies has at length been amicably settled, on a basis satisfactory to all parties. This course might have been adopted a long time ago, and a vast amount of money saved.

As I write this a large number of the pupils from the Institute for the Education of the Blind are giving an exhibition in the Hall of the House. The exhibition was intended solely for the members and officers of both Houses, and in order to give them the full benefit of enjoying it unmolested, two entertainments are advertised to come off at Brant's Hall; but notwithstanding this, the ladies and gentlemen of Harrisburg, who are evidently fond of cheap entertainments, have so crowded the Hall that many of the members are standing in the lobby.

The Democratic Convention meets to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The Convention will be full, nearly all of the delegates having arrived this evening. They appear to be in very good spirits, but at this time I am unable to say who is likely to be nominated for Auditor General. The contest up to this time lies between Richardson L. Wright and Capt. Jacob Zeigler, but by morning the entire programme may be changed.

Yours, LOGAN.

The Sons of Malta.

The report of the Grand Treasurer of the Independent Order of the Sons of Malta of the U. S., made to the Supreme Grand Council of the U. S., Mexico and Cuba, recently in session at New Orelean, shows that the balance now in the hands of the Treasurer is $262,241 81.—Of the receipts, the large amount of $58,179 29 is from Cuba, and $88,784 72 from New York city alone. The report shows the receipts from 129 lodges, but as no lodge is required to contribute anything to the Grand Lodge until it has been in operation six months, it is safe to say that there are now over 200 lodges, and their membership rapidly on the increase.—When it is understood that only 25 per cent, on the nett receipts of subordinate lodges is paid into the treasury of the Grand Lodge, it must be seen how immense is the sum that passes through the coffers of this order. The remaining 75 per cent. of nett revenue can only be distributed in charities, in the city or community in which it is located, each lodge having its own charity committee, whose duty it is to relieve (if found worthy) all cases of distress which may be brought to their notice. It may be asked what is to become of this immense fund which must be accumulated by the Grand Lodge in a few years. As this is one of the grand secrets of the Order, of course only the members, and only such of those as have taken the Oriental degree and have passed the "Vale of Mysteries," are permitted to know.

SENSATION NEWSPAPERS.—One of our contemporaries thus notices the engravings which have appeared in a number of the illustrated papers, purporting to be the likenesses of the most intimately connected with the recent Washington Tragedy;—

"The New York Sunday and other illustrated newspapers of the same sensation school, have had an immense run, especially those that have pictorial illustrations of the dramatis persona who are named in connection with the recent tragedy. And such likenesses? In one instance says an exchange, a cut that was originally executed for Piccolomini is palmed off as Mrs. Sickles; in another instance, an old likeness of Jenny Lind is pressed into the service, while Mr. Sickles and Butterworth are flattered with having the counterfeit presentments of a couple of fellows that were hanged not long since, exhibited to the enlightened public as the veritable portraits of the injured husband and his friend. Mr. Key being dead, is spared the mortification of seeing an old engraving of Alfred Bunn, the London theatrical manager, shown up as a fac simile by our artist."

INFAMOUS AVARICE AND TYRANNY.—The Superintendent of the House of Industry of New York informs the public that he found a widow, having two little girls, who attended the House School, hard at work, making boys' black cloth caps, trimmed with braid, and bow, and buttons, fined with glazed muslin, and wash-leather, and with patent leather front; for the making and pressing of which she received two shillings per dozen, or two cents a piece. The distressed woman had taken a lodger into her room, to add a little to her store laid away for rent, and the lodger ran away carrying all the rent money with her. The widow then applied to the Superintendent above named for the loan of $3.—He pertinently asks, "How long would the poor mother strive to spare $3 out of ten shillings per week?" all she could possibly earn. May we never have to record such extreme instances of grasping tradesmen and dependent families in our city!

GOING TO MEET A LOVER AND FINDING HIM A CORPSE.—A young lady, a Miss T, from Lockport, N Y, passed through Milwaukee one day last week, on her way to St. Paul, to meet her betrothed and fulfil her engagement to be married. Between Hasting and St. Paul, the La Cross Republican says she met the downward stage, which had the corpse of her intended husband. This she did not learn until she arrived at St. Paul, where she hired a livery and started back to over take the stage. She overhauled the stage at Wabashaw, and took charge of the remains of her lover. She passed through that city, last Thursday night, on her way home She was a brave girl, and bore her crushing sorrow by having faithful hope in the future.—The Republican says the livery man of St Paul only charged her fifty dollars for taking her to Wabashaw.

A JEALOUS FOOL.—Last week Special United States Mail Agent Finks, and Deputy Mashal Steel, proceeded to the residence of a gentleman named Smith, in Prince William county, Va., to arrest a boy in his employ, named Appleby, on the charge of illegally obtaining a letter from the post office. The boy was found, and appeared to be deeply penitent; but while the officers were in the house he slipped into the yard, and drawing a knife across his throat, instanly inflicted an ugly wound, and would have taken his life had not one of the daughters of Mr Smith seized his arm. Appleby was in love with a young lady in the house, and suspecting that she had written to a rival, he abstracted the letter from the post office, and after reading destroyed it.

"TIS THE SURVIVOR DIES."—The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier, speaking of the Sickels tragedy says:—An engineer on one of our railways had, without fault of his own, run the tremendous power under his control over a human being. The body was removed from the rail, death had done his dread work, examination was made of the circumstances, and the engineer acquitted, the homicide was not in him. Yet, a little while afterward, that engineer came to the superintendent and asked to resign his place, he could not endure it any longer. "Why do you go?" said the superintendent—"no one blames you." "Ah," said he "I must go. Every night I am on the road I see that man standing before the engine!"

ANOTHER SECRET TRAGEDY.—The ordinary Mac.—The Rochester (N. Y.) Advertiser of Friday has the following:

At Batavia, this morning, David Canty shot John Foster. His wife had been keeping house for Foster some time, and Curry requested her to come home. She refused. They quarreled last night. Foster and two other men beat Curry badly. Foster was shot just above the abdomen, the ball passing through his body and lodging in a fence post. Foster died in a few hours afterwards. Foster was passing on the opposite side of the street from Curry's house, and on his way to his work. He was about 30 years of age and a laborer. Curry was immediately arrested and committed to jail. There is considerable excitement in Batavia in regard to it.

A GOOD HIT AT THE CHIVALRY.—A Southern Senator having remarked in the debate on the appropriation bill, the other day, that the mints of North Carolina and Georgia were established for the benefit of the poorer classes of the miners of surface mines, Mr. Cameron, of Pennsylvania, dryly remarked "that this was the first time that he had ever heard there were poor men in the South."

☞ THE METHODISTS of Deleware have refused the aid which the Legislature had granted them of $4000 towards the building of a church, because the money is to be raised by lottery. They refused to be parties in any such gambling operation.

☞ Mrs. Sickles has returned to new York, and will reside in a house at Bloomingdale, the use of which is granted to her by Mr Sickles as long as she remains under her father's protection. Her little daughter, will, for the present, remain with her.

☞ A Judge of the Court of Common Pleas at Logansport, Ind., a few days since took umbrage at something said by a learned counsel, whereupon he came down from the bench and thrashed the lawyer.

☞ Ten thousand persons, it is estimated, have already arrived at St. Louis, en route for Pike's Peak. Yet they are but the first drops of the great shower of gold Hunters.

☞ A pack of wolves have recently been committing serious depredations to flocks of sheep in Cambria county.

☞ The Pennsylvania Railroad office, at Greensburg, was robbed of $83 on Friday last.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD.

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS.

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines before the public; that acts as a Cathartic, and Liver, more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, are fully developed. The powers of the system are almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is sick it is because the Liver is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers; in fact, the Liver is the great regulator of the system, having control over each of that organ, one of the most important in the human economy, and when it is at fault, some remedy whereby to restore it to healthy arrangements to which it is subject.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, is only to try it, and conviction is certain.

The Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are CURED, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the most distressing Dyspepsia, and will always prevent the food from rising and souring. One dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare, lessens the fever, induces sleep, and cures Costiveness.

Only one dose taken at meal will cure Dyspepsia. One dose of two teaspoonful will always relieve Sick Headache.

One bottle, taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure. Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while it is a sure cure for Cramp of Cholera.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cramp of Cholera. Morbus, and is preventive needed to throw out of the system after a long sickness.

Only one bottle is Jaundice removes all sallowness from the skin. One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated carries Chronic Diarrhea in its worst forms, while Summer Complaint and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cures Dropsy by exciting the absorbents to healthy action, commending the medicine and Liver Cathartic Pills, and Liver Invigorator. It operates with certainty, as it is warranted to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. SANFORD, Proprietor, 345 Broadway, New York.

☞ Sold by G. W. KESSLER, Altoona; and retailed by all Druggists. [May 27, 1858-1y

MORE THAN 500,000 BOTTLES SOLD IN THE NEW ENGLAND STATES IN ONE YEAR.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is the perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly ask the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the finest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest remedy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the way of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Western's Advocate, Pub.

Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1858.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects it unveil, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly,

S. T. STOCKMAN.

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE POETRY OF MARCH.—One of our cotemporaries indulges in some pleasant remarks on the present month, says:—"Among the Romans, March, from Mars, was the first month, and marriages made in this month were accounted of ovrius, as well as unhappy. The Saxons called March lent-monat, or length-month, because the days did first begin, in length, to exceed the nights.

In mantle of Protean clad
With aspect ferocious and wild;
Now pleasant, now sullen and sad,
Now forward, now placid and mild.

Such is the poet's character of this month, which is, in general, cold, with keen winds, the air clear and healthly. March, in the United States, though cold and windy, is generally conducive to health and vegetation. The superabundant moisture of the earth is dried up, and the process of sleeping vegetation is roused from its slumbers, and gradually brought on, and its vividly contrasted tints unite to please the admiring eye, though snowy flakes melt in the primrose cup. The latest springs are always the most favorable, because, as the young buds do not appear so soon, they are not liable to be cut off by chilling blasts. In this month the melody of birds gradually swells upon the ear; from the top of high trees, they pour forth their enchanting songs, and as their plumes blend beauteously, each with each, so run their notes, smoothly, with many a happy rise and fall. Thus the ordinance of nature, however incomprehensible they may appear to human observation, are founded on principles which are intended for our good; and the subversion of them is only calculated to draw down misery upon ourselves:—

"Sweet Spring, thou lingerest! and it should be so;
Late let the fields and gardens blossom out!
Like man, when most with smiles thy face is drest,
'Tis to deceive, and he who knows ye best,
Where most ye promise ever most must doubt!"

HORSES STOLEN.—On Saturday night last, one of the numerous gang of those theives, with which the country is now infested, entered the stable of Lloyd & Co., at Allegheny Furnace, and stole therefrom two horses, together with two bridles, two collars and a wagon saddle.—As soon as the theft was discovered, on Sunday morning, search was instituted and the horses were traced a considerable distance on the road towards Cumberland, Md., whither it is presumed the thief intended to take them, as the canal passing through that place, is about opening, and he would most likely find ready sale for them. Unless he would ride hard, however, we fear a few handbills would reach the place before him, as a number were forwarded by the Express train on Monday morning.

There is, undoubtedly, a well organized band of these outlaws now prowling through the country, as almost every paper we pick up contains an account of horses having been stolen in the vicinity in which it is printed. Notwithstanding the number of these gentlemen annually sent to the different penitentiaries in this State, there appears to be no abatement in their number, proving conclusively that it must be a paying business to those who have thus far escaped.

MORE GOOD FLOUR.—For some time past we have been using flour manufactured at the Steam Mill in this place, out of common red wheat, which our better-half pronounce the best ever brought into the house. We have heretofore adverted to the quality of flour manufactured at this mill, and urged our friends to give it a trial. The best of mills will some times make rather inferior flour, and this is frequently the case this year, owing to the indifferent quality of the wheat; but we know from observation and trial that the steam mill can turn out flour equal if not superior to day other mill in the country. The proprietors have lately received a large supply of the Kentucky wheat of the best quality, and those who buy flour at the steam mill hereafter may be sure of receiving a good article. We believe in encouraging home manufacturers, especially when we are sure we can get as good an article at as reasonable a price from them as we can by sending abroad.

OUTFIT FOR PIKE'S PEAK.—We understand that a number of persons intend leaving this place this spring for Pike's Peak, and as a matter of course they wish all the information they can obtain in relation to the best method of traveling, the easiest, shortest and quickest route, and the outfit necessary. We will not venture to give them directions as to the route, &c., but present for their consideration the following outfit recommended by a gentleman who has "traveled all the way," and which he vouches is all that is necessary to see a party through. It is as follows:—

100 lbs of flour, 2bbls of whiskey; 50 lbs of bacon, 40 gallons of whiskey, 100 lbs of vension, 18 demijohns of whiskey, 2 bxs of dried herrings, 1 bbl of whiskey, 1 bbl of crackers, 65 gallons of whiskey, 3 bbls of pickles, ½ bbl of whiskey, and 12 quart mugs.

"OPINIONS OF THE PRESS."—Several editors are disputing out west about the comparative length of the ears of corn they have received. Can they find notning better to boast of than the length of their ears? Yes, they are unanimous in their opinion respecting the legality and responsibility of WOOD, EDDY & CO.'s lottery.—They note the fact that the respectability of this old established firm would scorn to forfeit their well-earned reputation by hesitating or failing to pay the prizes drawn against them. They also unite in saying that by sending $10. $5, or $2½, to Wood, Eddy & Co., Wilmington, Delaware or Augusta, Ga., you will stand a chance of receiving in return the whole, half or quarter of their magnificent prize of $50,000.

FOR CLEANING SILK.—The following is said to be an excellent receipt for cleaning silk:—

"Pare three Irish potatoes into thin slices and wash them well. Pour on them a half pint of boiling water and let it stand till cold. Strain the water and add to it an equal quantity of alcohol. Sponge the silk on the right side, and when half dry, iron it on the wrong side. The most delicate colored silks may be cleansed by this process, which is equally applicable to delt, velvet or crape."

LECTURE.—The following correspondence, handed us on Tuesday last, explains itself:—

L. W. HALL, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—The undersigned, a Committee on behalf of the Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading Room Association, to procure lecturers, respectfully invite you to deliver a lecture before said Society, at such time as shall best suit your convenience, and on such subject as you may choose.

We shall be pleased to have your reply in the affirmative, stating the subject you may have selected and the evening you prefer.

Very Respectfully,
THOS. P. SARGENT,
A. CARNEGIE,
C. J. MANN,
} Committee.
Altoona March, 14, 1859.

T. P. SARGENT, Chairman.

Your favor in behalf of the Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading Room Association, received. At first I thought it would be impossible (owing to professional engagements) for me to comply with your request, but on reflection I have determined to do so, and would name Thursday evening, March 31st, as the time. My theme shall be "Benjamin Franklin."

Very Truly Yours.
LOUIS W. HALL.

Altoona, March 15, 1859.

From the character of the gentleman above named, as a lecturer, and the subject he has chosen, we have no hesitancy in assuring those who shall attend the lecture that they will receive a rich literary treat. As the lecture will be free, we hope to see the room of the Association well filled—indeed it should not be large enough to contain all the persons in this place who ought to attend such entertainments, but there being no better room which can be had for the purpose, we must be content with this one for the present.

DEAD CHILD FOUND.—Considerable excitement was created in this place, on Sunday last, by the finding of the dead body of a fully developed male child in the "deep cut" of the old Bennington Railroad, at the eastern end of Mulberry street. The body was sewed up in a pillow slip, and when found, was lying in a shallow pool of water. It had evidently been there for some days, being in a partial state of decomposition. No post mortem examination was held, the condition of the body being such as to prevent it. Though no positive evidence to that effect was elicited, there is little room to doubt that the child came to its death from violence at the hands of its parent or an equally guilty accomplice. No clue which would lead to the detection of the perpetrator of the unnatural deed, has been discovered, and in all probability he or she will escape the punishment which such a hellish crime merits. Fortunately there is an hereafter where such deeds cannot escape detection, and where their guilty authors will be punished to the full measure of their iniquity.

An inquest was held on the body by Esquire Cox. The jury found that it came to its death from some unknown cause. The remains were taken to the Alms House and interred.—Standard.

THE ANGEL BINDING SATAN—BEAUTIFUL SPECIMEN OF PENMANSHIP AT DUFF'S COLLEGE PITTSBURGH.—On Saturday, we called at this old established and popular College, and our attention was attracted by a large and splendid picture drawn by the artist pen of John S. Duncan, Professor of Penmanship in that College. The design is a magnificient one. Subject "The Angel Binding Satan," taken from the 20th chapter of Revelations, first and second verses.

The picture is four feet by five feet, and is magnificently portrayed, all having been done with a steel pen. The portrait of the Angel binding in triumph the Prince of Darkness, and his terrible expression, are life-like, and in their execution required great powers both in conception and execution. All lovers of the beautiful and grand should call and see this triumph of Penmanship, which fully proves that Mr. Duncan is full master of his most difficult art.—Commercial Journal.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon last, Mr. Miller Lindsey, a workman in the shops in this place, had his left hand severely crushed under the wheel of a truck car which was being moved through the shop. Mr. L., it appears, attempted to remove a block which was lying on the track in front of the car, but not being quick enough, his hand was caught by the wheel.—The joint of his fore finger, adjoining the hand, was considerably splintered, the end of the second finger torn off, and his hand otherwise injured. He was taken to the office of Drs. Hirst & Good, where his hand was dressed. Hopes are entertained that amputation of his fore finger will not be necessary.

HEALTH AND LONG LIFE.—Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has prepared a medicine for the cure of lung diseases, that bids fair to out rival all the various horde of nostrums, with which the public have been pestered for years. He does not pretend that it will cure consumption in its last steps, when ulcers are eating up the lungs, but he means to do a great deal of good, in arresting in time the symtoms which lead to a fatal disease. Take warning in time, then, and when you get a cough, get a bottle of DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP, which will be sure to cure you. Sold at G. W. Kessler's, Altoona, Pa.

HOTEL PROPERTY FOR SALE.—Mr. Geo. B. Cramer is now offering a valuable lot of Hotel property at private sale, at the Railroad warehouse, in this place, the character, quality and quantity of which will be found in an advertisement in another column. Bargains may be had in this property, and those wishing anything of the style therein mentioned will do well to examine it. All not sold by the 4th of April will on that day be offered at public sale.

PEOPLES' SHOE STORE.—Attention is requested to the advertisement of C. W. Kimball, in another column. Mr. K. has just opened a large and excellent assortment of Boots and Shoes, which he promises to sell at fair prices and give bargains, and hopes thereby to receive a share of patronage. Those who deal with him will find him an accommodating salesman.

PREACHING.—Rev. Samuel Creighton, the minister appointed to this Station at the late Annual Meeting of East Baltimore Conference, will preach his first sermon in the Methodist church in this place, on Sabbath next, at the usual hour.

M. E. CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.—The following are the appointments made for the Juniata District, by the recent Annual Conference held at Williamsport:—

Hollidaysburg—John H. C. Dosh.
Altoona—Samuel Creighton.
Woodbury—W. H. Houch and C. Graham.
Schellsburg—C. Cleaver and W. W. Brim.
Bedford—Samuel Barns.
Bedford, Circuit—R. W. Black and J. W. Buckley.

Philipsburg—Henry Wilson & J. B. Scarbro.
Curwensville and Clearfield—W. L. Spottswood.
New Washington—E. W. Kirby and Hugh Lynn.

The next East Baltimore Conference will be held at Lewisburg, Pa.; time to be made known hereafter.

Rev. S. A. Wilson has been sent to East Baltimore; Rev. W. Downs to Boonsboro; and Rev. A. E. Gibson to Emory Chapel Station, Carlisle.

ALTOONA, March 15, '59.

MESSRS. MCCRUM & DERR:—On Sabbath last, the Lutheran congregation of this place, under the Pastoral care of Rev. J. Steck, took it in hand to raise subscription sufficient to cancel a debt which has existed against their church for some time, and it was really encouraging to the hearts of the congregation present to see, with what promptness and a spirit of liberality, the members of the congregation and others responded to the call, in giving their hundreds, seventy-fives, fifties, twenties &c., until the sum of eleven hundred dollars was subscribed, being some two hundred dollars above the amount required to cancel the debt. We would here express our sincere and heart-felt thanks to those kind brethren, not members of the Lutheran church, who so kindly and abundantly contributed to our aid in this our time of need. May they be abundantly blessed by the good Spirit above, both temporally and spiritually, for these noble acts of charity. P.

WALL PAPERING.—Those who intend to fix up their houses this spring will of course need wall papering. By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that J. M. Hewitt, of Hollidaysburg, and W. P. Marshall & Co., of Pittsburgh, have a quantity of the article on hand with which they will be pleased to furnish all those who stand in need of it.

Messrs. J. & J. Lowther announce that they have just received a large stock of Wall Papering and Border direct from the manufacturers in New York. Call and see.

PRESENTATION.—A few days since, the polite, accomplished, and gentlemanly clerk in the Post Office in this place, had presented to him, by the model and elegantly proportioned chief clerk in the Master Builder's department of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a neat, tastefully executed and highly useful piece of furniture which is indispensable to a young man's complete wardrobe. The aforesaid article may be seen at any time at the Post-office.

LECTURE.—Rev. T. Mullen, of St. Peter's church, Allegheny city, will lecture in the Catholic church, in this place, to-morrow (Friday) evening. We have not been informed as to his subject, but from the character of the Rev. gentleman, as a lecturer, we can safely say that whatever it may be it will be well worth listening to.

☞C Jaggard has removed his goods for the present to Ferree & Morrow's corner, where in a few days he will be happy to see his friends and the public generally.

Altoona, March 3d. 1859.

Ho! for the Arctic Region!

If any of the Ladies are dissatisfied with the weather we are having, and desire visiting the Arctic Region, we would recommend them to call on C. J. MANN and replenish their wardrobe from his beautiful stock of which he is selling off CHEAP, being determined to dispose of them while the snow is screeching.

January 13th, 1859.

THE HALL OF FASHION is still open, and the Proprietor, in returning thanks to his numerous customers for their liberal patronage bestowed on him since his commencement, here desires to say (without fear of contradiction) that he is prepared to offer for their inspection the best assortment of handsome DRESS GOODS, SHAWLS, CLOAKS, WHITE GOODS, &c., &c., that can be found in Altoona.

Respectfully, &c., C. J. MANN.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and delicate diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess and removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, price one dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females during the first three months of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada,
JOB MOSES, (late I. C. Baldwin & Co.)
Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1.00 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle, containing 50 Pills, by return mail.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR,
and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR
will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Sur Ankle, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Scald Feet, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR
In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

Principal Depot, 165 Chambers street, New York.

HAIR DYE—HAIR DYE—HAIR DYE.

WM. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE!

The Original and Best in the World!

All others are mere imitations, and should be avoided, if you wish to escape ridicule.

GRAY, RED, or RUSTY HAIR. Dyed instantly to a beautiful and natural Brown or Black, without the least injury to the Hair or Skin.

Fifteen Medals and Diplomas have been awarded to Wm. A. Batchelor since 1839, and over 80,000 applications have been made to the hair of his patrons of his famous Dye.

WM. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE produces a color not to be distinguished from nature, and is WARRANTED not to injure in the least, however long it may be continued, and the ill effect of Bad Dyes remedied; the Hair invigorated for Life by this Splendid Dye.

Made, sold or applied (in 9 private rooms) at the Wig Factory, 233 Broadway, New York.

Sold by Druggists in Altoona, and by Druggists in all cities and towns of the United States.

WM. A. BATCHELOR,
Nov. 18, 1858-1y 233 Broadway, New York.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES—DR CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.—The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which always arise from interruption of nature, inducing with certainty periodical regularity. Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to lifeor health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail by enclosing $1 to any authorized Agent.

R. B. HUTCHINGS, General Agent for the United States, 165 Chambers street, New York.

HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful Arcana has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES.—The undersigned has just received from Philadelphia, North, Chase & North's celebrated Cooking Stoves for 1857, for Wood or Coal. This beautiful Cooking Stove challenges all competition for the exquisite style of ornament and perfect operation in all respects. The oven extends under the fire-box and the flues are so arranged that the whole oven can be heated small cake perfectly and uniformly. The slightest examination of this Stove must satisfy every one that it will become a universal favorite.
THE ROYAL COOK
THE SEA SHELL
for wood or coal. The fire box is of good capacity—the a h-box is deep—the oven is capacious and is a thorough baker. This stove is one that may readily be recommended for family use, in every particular.
All kinds of heating and parlor stoves constantly on hand.

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.—Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand:
A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhœa or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by
B. DE LANEY, M. D.
The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be safely removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.
Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 28 East 21st street, New York City.
May 6, 1858.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.
I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time. J. H. HAHN.

MAP OF BLAIR COUNTY.—THE subscribers propose to publish a New Map of Blair County, Pennsylvania, from actual surveys, containing all Public Roads, Rail Roads, Canals, the actual localities of Villages, Post Offices, Houses of Worship, School Houses, Manufactories, Tanneries, Mills, Hotels, Stores, Farm Houses, names of Property Owners, &c.
Enlarged Plans of the Principal Villages, a Table of Distances, and a Business Directory, giving the name and business of each subscriber, will be engraved on the map. The plotting will be to a suitable scale so as to make a handsome ornamental Map, which will be colored and mounted in the best style, and delivered to subscribers at $5 per copy. SAMUEL GRIL,

THE MODEL IN BLAST!
THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD announce that they have removed to their new MODEL STORE, corner of Annie and Virginia Streets, and are now opening the largest and nicest Stock of DRY GOODS,
Boots & Shoes, Carpets, Notions, &c.,
Ever exhibited in this town. Having turned our attention entirely to the above named Goods, we will be enabled to keep a better stock of the Goods mentioned than those who keep so many varieties; and as we will not be compelled to sell Dry Goods, &c., at a high profit to make up for losses on other goods, we hope to be able to dispose of them at prices that will astonish the natives.
FOR THE LADIES,
We have Prints, Delaines, Ginghams, Cashmere, and all-wool Plaids; Debeges, Coburgs, Alpacas, French Merinos, Wool Delaines, Silk Poulards, Poil Dechevres, Satin Striped Poplins, Black and Fancy Silks, Shawls in great variety; also, Hosiery and Gloves of all kinds, White Goods, &c.
OUR STOCK OF CARPETS is large and very cheap—wool filling as low as 62½ cents. Our Stock of DOMESTICS we think cannot be beat in quantity, quality or price. Persons who wish to get the most for their money, will do well to give us a call and examine our stock and prices, and we hope to be able to convince them that the MODEL is the place to buy goods. DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT! For Inflammatory Diseases only.
NEW MEDICAL SALT!
IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.
For Inflammatory Diseases Only!

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: SUBDUING INFLAMMATORY DISEASE, whether be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

The peculiar excellence of the NEW MEDICAL SALT is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures INFLAMMATORY DISEASES (no other) by producing an equilibrium of all the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation.

TWAIN, TAKE NOTICE!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever, are as easily subdued by the NEW MEDICAL SALT, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain-Fever, Headache, Rush of Blood to the Head, and Brain-Fever, Headache, Rush of Blood to the Head, and Heart, Fits, Inflamed Eyes, Ears and Nose, Canker, Neuralgia, Spinal Affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Inflamed Lungs and Liver, Heartburn, Coughs, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all Itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT exerts, like the vaccine matter, an extraordinary influence on the veins and arteries, resulting in a gradual decline of inflammation as indicated by the pulse, which soon resumes its natural state, as the heat, pain and fever disappear.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids, by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Description circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.
The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such disease by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.
The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Selfabuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.
The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.
An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Selfabuse, and other diseases of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.
Address, for Report or Treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 S. Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.
CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.
The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING
Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others as it requires
ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL
than other stoves and is more readily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no dirt, ashes or soot, so that unpleasant and often annoying exhalations is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.
Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER.

GREAT DISCOVERY OF THE AGE IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES, the great Substitute for Tobacco.
It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe.
MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most deleterious in their effects, which by entering into the blood destroys the nutritious and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.
TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—by Lockjaw, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.
THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES
Are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.
Persons who are irretrievably unlearning their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.
These Troches of Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.
Prepared solely by the undersigned to whom all orders should be addressed.
